Happy New Year! Hope you had a fantastic festive season. 2017 was a year of growth and development for us, but we're set to make 2018 even bigger for the free world movement, with lots of work currently going into tweaking the Freeworlder site for an exciting new relaunch (more on that soon!), building connections to help spread our reach and...

Finalising the F-Day audiobook! No time to sit down and read F-Day: The Second Dawn of Man? No problem. Simply stick this on in the car, on your phone, via your Bluetooth radio, etc. and have the gripping story read to you by Colin Turner himself. It's almost ready to be published but you can get a sneak preview right now...

INTERVIEW WITH A FREEWORLDER!

It can be a bit of a struggle trying to convey the need for, and concept of, a world free of the profit cycle with those around you. Believe us, we know! But founder of the Free World Charter, Colin Turner, took a pretty good shot at answering all those tough questions in a recent interview. Have a read of the 3-partner and see what you think. It's a great resource to send to those who are new to these ideas as a warm-up for the Charter itself.

HELP US MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN 2018!

New Year's resolutions are still fresh in our minds and what better way to start another year than with a pledge to help create a better world for all of us?

With automation of jobs on the rise, we need a solution to the real threat of loss of income, and thus the means to survive. If you believe, like we do, that Freeworlder is indeed that solution, help us take it mainstream. Your donation, no matter how small, means we can spread these ideas far and wide, and prevent a potential crisis. With governments providing very few real solutions, only short-term quick-fixes, don't you think it's time we took matters into our own hands?
