Dear %%firstname%%,

Well the Champions League 2015 Final is almost upon us, and what an epic journey it's been!

This year saw the refs using vanishing spray for the first time, British colony Gibraltar became the 54th UEFA member and took part in their first Champions League competition, and bookings were no longer carried forward beyond the quarter finals.

And it's been an eventful one for the teams too: no Premier League teams made it beyond the knockout stage, last year's champions Real Madrid were knocked out in the semi finals and German giant Bayern's progress was halted by Barcelona.

So it all boils down to Juventus v Barcelona on June 6 at Berlin's Olympiastadion!

Please find enclosed your personalised VIP Champions League Bonus card, to help you make the most of this unmissable match, courtesy of Betrally.

Thanks for your loyalty.

Good luck!

Regards,
